Dear friends of APWA:

The American Public Works Association (APWA) requests your support in building upon a tradition of continuing education for career enhancement of public agency employees. Your participation in the APWA Annual Scholarship Golf Tournament provides the much needed support to sustain the highly respected APWA Scholarship Program, designed to promote and ensure a continuation of the high level of skill, talent, and professionalism that is the pride of the APWA membership. For over 100 years, APWA and its chapters have strived for the advancement and continued development of the various components that make up the Public Works family.

Thank you for your support and leadership!
